

Panel of Trainers

Uztaz Mohd Amri Bin Abdullah

Ustaz Mohd Amri Bin Abdullah is currently the Penolong Pengarah Bahagian Hub Halal (Pemantauan dan Penguatkuasaan) in Jabatan Kemajuan Islam Malaysia (JAKIM). Graduated with Degree in Pengajian Islam from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. He has been worked in JAKIM for 5 years in the enforcement division to oversee the integrity of Halal Certification by conducting the inspection and audit for those companies especially manufacturing which have approved by JAKIM as certified Halal products. He also has been a speaker to few seminars conducted by private and government sector to present the papers regarding of Halal Certification.

Dr Hamzah Bin Mohd Salleh

Dr Hamzah Bin Mohd Salleh is currently the coordinator of Halal Industry Research Centre from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) and also the Director of Advanced Engineering and Innovation Center, IIUM. He holds PHD in Chemistry from University of Waterloo, Canada. He also holds a Master Degree in Science from University of Waterloo, Canada. Dr Hamzah has been a lecturer since 1995 and covers chemistry, biotechnology and food science subjects in IIUM. He has published few publications in food science and been a speaker in few conferences and seminars to present papers on food technologies and chemistry. He is currently leading his division to plan the Halal Executive Certificate programme with FMM Institute to cater the needs of food industries to know better in Halal certification and implementation.

En Saifol Bin Bahli

En Saifol has been in the food industries for over 10 years, working his way up from Health Inspector to Assistant Manager, Human Resources. He has in-depth hands-on experience in various areas of food manufacturing such as inspection, certification, auditing, training and administering.

A degree holder with a Bachelor of Food Technology, En Saifol also a part-time lecturer in local universities covering food safety and quality control courses. He is also a certified trainer of Hygiene and Food Safety and a member of Persatuan Pengguna Islam Malaysia, Malaysia Health Inspector Association and Malaysia Society for Occupational Safety and Health,